

8th January 2019

07/2019

THE RESTORATION AND CONSERVATION OF THREE HISTORICAL PAINTINGS

This Friday, 11th January 2019, the restoration and conservation work which was carried out on three historic paintings at the Archbishop's Curia will be inaugurated. The three eighteenth-century paintings portray the images of the Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of the Rosary with Dominican saints, and the Eternal Father.

Dr Theresa Vella, an art historian, will give a critical appreciation of the paintings, while the painting conservators, Valentina Lupo and Maria Grazia Zenzani of Atelier del Restauro, will give a presentation of the restoration work done during the past year. This restoration and conservation project was carried out with the support of APS Bank.

The public is invited to attend.